

Generals Scott and Worth.

The following is the correspondence between General Scott and Worth, which led to the arrest of the latter and the suspension of the former:

Mexico, Nov. 13, 1847.

Sir: I learn with much astonishment that the prevailing opinion in this army points the imputation of "scandalous" conduct in the third, and the invocation of the "great numbers" in the fourth paragraph of order No. 349, printed and issued on yesterday, to myself, as one of the officers alluded to. Although I cannot suppose those opinions to be correctly formed, nevertheless, regarding the high source from which such imputations flow, so seriously affecting the qualities as a gentleman, his character and usefulness as an officer, of him to whom they may be aimed, I feel it incumbent on me to ask, as I now do, most respectfully, of the frankness and sense of justice of the general-in-chief, whether in any sense or degree, he condescended to apply, or designed to have applied the epithets contained in that order to myself; and, consequently, whether the general military opinion or sentiment in that matter has taken a right or intended direction.

I trust I shall be pardoned for pressing, with urgency, an early reply to this communication.

Very respectfully, &c.,

W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen.,
Commanding 1st Division.

Capt. Scott, A. A. Adj. Gen., Headquarters.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
Mexico, Nov. 14, 1847.

Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt, this morning, of your communication dated the 13th inst., relative to general order No. 349, and I am instructed by the general-in-chief to reply: "That the general order No. 349 was, as is pretty clearly expressed on its face, meant to apply to the general-in-chief, and to the general-in-chief, and to the summary of two letters given in the Washington Union, and copied into a Tampico paper; to the authors, aiders, and abettors of those letters, be they whom they may."

I am, very respectfully,
Your most obedient servant,
H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen.
Bvt. Maj. Gen. WORTH, U. S. A., Com'd'g, &c.

HEADQUARTERS, 1st Division,
Mexico, Nov. 14, 1847.

Sir: I have had the honor to receive your letter in reply, but not in answer, to mine of yesterday's date, handed in this morning. The general order is too clearly "expressed on its face" to admit of any doubt of its application in regard to persons; the object of my letter, as I endeavored clearly to express, was to seek to know distinctly, and with a view to further measures to protect myself, if, as I supposed, I was one of the persons referred to. Regretting the necessity for intrusion, I am compelled again respectfully to solicit an answer to the question. I ask it as an act of simple justice, which, it is hoped, will not be denied.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen.,
Commanding 1st Division.

Capt. H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen., Headquarters.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
Mexico, Nov. 14, 1847.

Sir: The General-in-Chief desires me to reply to your note of this date, by saying that he cannot be more explicit than in his reply, through me, already given. That he has nothing to do with the suspicions of others, and has no positive information himself as to the authorship of the letters alluded to in general order No. 349. If he had valid information on the subject, he would immediately prosecute the parties before a general court martial.

I have the honor, to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen.,
Commanding 1st Division.

Capt. H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen., Headquarters.

HEADQUARTERS, 1st Division,
Mexico, Nov. 14, 1847.

Sir: It is due to official courtesy and propriety that I acknowledge your letter, No. 2, in answer to mine of this date, and in doing so, I am bound to state my independence with the headquarters of this army. I beg permission to say, and with regret, that I have received no satisfactory answer to the first and rightful inquiries which I have addressed to the general-in-chief; but inasmuch as I know myself to be deeply aggrieved and wronged, it only remains to go, by appeal, as I shall do, through the prescribed channels, to the constitutional commander-in-chief.

The general-in-chief is pleased to say, through you, that "he has nothing to do with the suspicions of others, and that he has no positive information himself as to the authorship of the letters alluded to in general order No. 349." But he has no positive information himself as to the authorship of the letters alluded to in general order No. 349. But he has no positive information himself as to the authorship of the letters alluded to in general order No. 349.

I remain, sir, your obedient servant,
W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen.,
Capt. H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen., Headquarters.

HEADQUARTERS, 1st Division of the Army,
Mexico, Nov. 16, 1847.

Sir: From the arbitrary and illegal conduct—the wildest and gross injustice inflicted by the general officer, commanding in chief this army—Major General Winfield Scott—I appeal, as my right and privilege, to the constitutional commander-in-chief, the President of the United States.

I accuse Major General Winfield Scott of having acted in a manner unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. He has availed himself of his position to publish, by his authority, to the army which he commands, and of the influence of his station to give the highest effect to an order, bearing date Nov. 12th, 1847, and numbered 349, (official printed copy herewith), calculated and designed to cast odium and disgrace upon Brevet Major Gen. Worth, to bring that general officer into disrepute with the army, and to lessen, if not destroy his just influence and proper authority with those officers and soldiers over whom he is placed in command. That he has, without inquiry or investigation, in the said order, (published to the army and to the world,) falsely charged Brevet Major Gen. Worth with having written, or connived at the writing, of a certain letter, published in the United States, and to which he has been pleased to apply the epithets of "scandalous, malignant," &c. That he has made these statements to the world, giving to them the sanction of his high authority and the influence of his position, whilst he has acknowledged that he had no information as to the authorship of the letter in question; and when respectfully and properly addressed upon the subject by the undersigned, appellant, he has declined to reply, whether or not he intended to impute to Brevet Major Gen. Worth a crime which he has characterized as "scandalous, malignant," &c. Be pleased to refer to correspondence herewith marked from A to E.

I do not urge present action on these accusations, because of the inconvenience of the service in withdrawing many officers from their duties; but I do humbly and respectfully invoke the President's examination into the case, and such notice thereof and protection from the arbitrary conduct of said general as he may deem suitable.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen., U. S. A.,
Ensignment on the preceding letter, dated Nov. 16, 1847.

"This paper was prepared on the day of its date, but transmission delayed in the hope, not realized, that mature reflection would suggest an act of justice."

W. J. WORTH.

J. C. PEMBERTON, Captain A. D. C.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY IN MEXICO,
November 23, 1847.

Sir: Your letter to me of the 24th inst., covering a communication from you to the Secretary of War, is received.

W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen., U. S. A.,
Ensignment on the preceding letter, dated Nov. 16, 1847.

"This paper was prepared on the day of its date, but transmission delayed in the hope, not realized, that mature reflection would suggest an act of justice."

W. J. WORTH.

J. C. PEMBERTON, Captain A. D. C.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY IN MEXICO,
November 23, 1847.

Sir: Your letter to me of the 24th inst., covering a communication from you to the Secretary of War, is received.

W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen., U. S. A.,
Ensignment on the preceding letter, dated Nov. 16, 1847.

"This paper was prepared on the day of its date, but transmission delayed in the hope, not realized, that mature reflection would suggest an act of justice."

W. J. WORTH.

J. C. PEMBERTON, Captain A. D. C.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY IN MEXICO,
November 23, 1847.

Sir: Your letter to me of the 24th inst., covering a communication from you to the Secretary of War, is received.

W. J. WORTH, Bvt. Maj. Gen., U. S. A.,
Ensignment on the preceding letter, dated Nov. 16, 1847.

"This paper was prepared on the day of its date, but transmission delayed in the hope, not realized, that mature reflection would suggest an act of justice."

W. J. WORTH.

J. C. PEMBERTON, Captain A. D. C.

against general order No. 349, issued from this office, has been received and this morning read by the general-in-chief.

For the studied contempt and disrespect towards the general-in-chief, expressed in that communication to the Secretary of War, under the form of an appeal, I am instructed by the general-in-chief to desire that you will immediately consider yourself in a state of arrest, within the limits of this city, and to await the order of the general-in-chief, who will, in due season, make it material for your trial on that and probably other matters.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
H. L. SCOTT, A. A. Adj. Gen.
Brevet Maj. Gen. W. J. WORTH, U. S. Army.

Charge and Specification against Brevet Major General Worth of the U. S. Army.

CHARGE.—Behaving with contempt and disrespect towards his commanding officer.

SPECIFICATION.—In this, that said Brevet Major General Worth, in a communication dated Nov. 16, 1847, addressed through the Acting Assistant Adjutant General attached to the general headquarters of the American forces in Mexico, to the Secretary of War, under the pretext and form of an appeal to the President of the United States, from a general order, No. 349, published Nov. 12, 1847, in the name and by the authority of the general-in-chief, and in violation of the said forces, at the time, and still, said Brevet Major General Worth, the said Worth grossly accused the said Scott of having been in the said order, actuated by "malice" against him, the said Worth, as well as "of having acted in a manner unbecoming an officer and a gentleman" towards him.

All this at the capital of Mexico, at the date first above written.

WINFIELD SCOTT, Maj. Gen., &c.

A Democratic Mother.

We publish the following letter as we find it in the Washington Union, with the introductory note of Senator Cameron. Every mother in Pennsylvania will read it with peculiar interest:

To the Editor of the Union:

Sir:—Will you oblige me by publishing the letter which follows, and which I cut from the North American, printed in the city of Mexico on the 13th of January last. It was written by a Pennsylvania mother, more than sixty years of age, to her son, a private soldier in the ranks of our army. That son was the only poor of her age, and his labor was necessary for her support; and yet she thinks but of her country and its honor. I am proud of this old lady, and wish to show her to other states and other countries as one to be imitated. We may pardon the little fling she gives to the "Mexican Whigs," believing, as she does, that they have added to the peril of her boy. She is but one of thousands of Pennsylvania mothers, and I extract her letter to show that one State, at least, will stand by the country in this war.

SIMON CAMERON.

GRAND, ERIC CO., Nov. 17, 1847.

My dear George:—Once more I take my pen with a heavy heart, being almost in despair of hearing from you, much less seeing you again. You promised, when you wrote to me from Jalapa, that you would write once a month; but I have not got one line from you since. I still write to you, and why you do not get my letters I can't imagine. I hope you have various accounts from the army. Surrounding as we are in Mexico, I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news. I feel that I have all kinds of news.

MEDICAL MATTERS.

NEW DISEASE IN VIRGINIA.—We lately quoted from the Romney Intelligence, an account of a violent disease, called "canker rash," which was raging in the counties of Harrison and Pendleton, "a wretched and loathsome malady, which has thus far baffled the skill of the medical faculty." This disease is nothing new. It has raged more than once in different parts of this country and Europe. It has been called, in New England, canker rash, and is a highly malignant fever, of both inflammatory and putrid type, in which the throat is principally affected, and is analogous to scarlet fever, and also to quincy. It raged in France and in North America in 1737, while the scarlet fever raged in Edinburgh. It also raged in England in 1742, and in 1745. In 1752 it raged with great malignity in Ireland, under the name of angina or quincy. In 1754, it was violent and fatal in Ireland, England and North America. It raged in North America in 1775, under the name of cynanche maligna. It raged in Philadelphia as scarlet fever, in 1783 and in 1784 in South Carolina and New England, in Scotland in 1785, and in England in 1786. It was epidemic in Philadelphia in 1790, in Connecticut in 1792, throughout New England in 1793. In 1794 it raged in Connecticut under the name of ulcerous sore throat. It prevailed in New Hampshire with great violence in 1798 and 1800. The late Dr. Thomson gives an account of it in these years, under the name of canker rash, and of his first effort in treating it in one of his own children, two years old, who had been pronounced incurable by her physician. His remedies were mild stimulation and vapor bath, and the patient recovered.

The disease, though highly malignant, as appears from the ulceration of the throat and other symptoms, is easily managed if properly treated. In all its stages, whether cold or hot, it can be conquered by giving action to the stomach by stimulants, action to the bowels by the same means, applied by injection, and action to the skin by warm water or vapor bath. All debilitating agents should be avoided, and calomel and bleeding are almost or quite sure to kill. In the first or cold stage, any stimulants, as brandy, rum, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be continued each other. The great object is to sustain vital power by rousing the stomach, bowels and skin, and therefore any judicious and intelligent physician will know how to proceed; and in nine cases of ten among children, a judicious and energetic mother, following those three landmarks, will remove the patient beyond danger in less than twelve hours. After the natural action of these functions have been roused, food, pepper, ginger, &c., are useful, though not so efficacious, and probably proper, red or black, the best, and the stimulant and bath should be